from Their Royal Majesties

Unto the great Stag populace do we Ceasan and Vanna Rex and Regina of these fair lands send greetings.

Congratulations to Syr Bela the Kurgan, Syr Samuel de Grac'e, Syr Roger de Guilbert and Syr Rand the Tracker for their elevation to Chivalry at Estrella War. Congratulations to all those who received recognition at War.

To all those who aided us and the Kingdom, We would like to thank you. With out your aid our Crowns would not have shown so brightly. Our clothes would not have been so fine. Our spirits would not have been so high. Hail to all who came to Estrella to show the might of the Stag. We are grateful to have such a wonderful populace.

Queens Prize draws near We would like to remind all those attending to bring tokens to give to those whose work impresses you. We would also like to remind the sponsors to bring a prize for each entrant that you sponsor. Please remember that these prizes are not for your entrants but for another entrant that impresses you.

As we look to the future and our new heirs we must remember though we all are diverse with different likes and opinions, we have all found each other in a Society based on honor and chivalry. We all come here to live The Dream. We must respect each other and try to be kind to one another in order to live The Dream.

The Man Who Smashed the Idol

A man had an idol to which he prayed, asking for wealth. But the more he prayed to it, the poorer he became. Finally he grew very angry and started to smash it. When the head broke, a great number of gold coins poured out. The man gathered up the gold and said to the idol, "Why do you always do just the opposite of what you should do? When I prayed to you, you didn't help me; now that I mistreat you, I get good things in return."

Moral: Prayers and hopes do not necessarily determine future events.

Highland games, sheep riving and create -a- sheep contests, plenty of A and S, and many fun activities for non fighters, and children will be going on all weekend. We will be holding a Celtic Cookoff again this year, so start rounding up your favorite Scottish, Irish, or Welsh dishes. Following the judging of the Celtic dishes, we will be dining on the winners (and dare I say losers?) creations in an informal potluck feast, Saturday evening, in the main Ramada. We have invited merchants to attend, so plan on some light summer shopping while on site.

Though we have no activities planned past noon on Sunday, we encourage you to postpone the mundane world for a Sunday pick up melee or two and a Sunday night Bardic in one of the most peaceful and beautiful campgrounds in New Mexico. The site is very near downtown Ruidoso and amenities such as food, laundry mat, and gasoline are within easy driving distance. Potable water is available on site. It generally rains a little at this event, so plan on this possibility, as well as plan onchecking with the forest service in the case of drought or fire restrictions in the Lincoln Forest. The site is wet, and did I mention how beautiful and cool the site is?

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Good Day,

Spring is here and the tournament season is soon upon us. I hope that all of the Shires and Baronies have there events scheduled and planned and are ready to have a great time.

With the thought of events in mind I often notice that many of the smaller groups occasionally have difficulty planning and putting on events. Sometimes the resources that are available in larger groups simply are not readily available. Moreover, gentles do not have the experience to plan and put on an event. What these groups need is a place where they go knowing that help is readily available.

I have established a new position within the Seneschalate for just this purpose. The Honorable Lord Duncan MacAllister has graciously agreed to be the new Small Group Coordinator. With his past experience as an autocrat and small group Seneschal and his recent experience as Chronicler he is very well qualified to provide assistance to any who wish it. His Excellency's contact information is on the back inside cover of this issue of the Outlandish Herald.

Another important issue related to events is camping safety. This past Estrella tent fires injured people and destroyed property. In addition improper use of a propane heater caused the death of two people. Occurrences like these are the result of carelessness or improper training in how to use equipment. At the altitudes we camp in the Outlands, temperatures at night often fall dramatically. If you are considering purchasing a heater of some sort read the directions and warnings before you buy. Additionally, watch out for your neighbor. If somebody near you seems overly tired, sick or has been drinking, lend a hand to ensure they are safe before you turn in. With a little common sense and neighborly watchfulness we can prevent a tragety and keep our events fun for all.

In Service,

Syr Rhys Afalwin

From the Kingdom Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

With the return of spring and fair weather, the time comes to stretch your sword arm in practice for the summer's glorious tournaments and fierce melees. Many opportunities come to show your skill and valor, but remember always that the victor of a battle is the gentle who walks away from it with their honor intact, having fought their best. This holds true whether it be at fighter practice, on the tourney field or at a great war. Every so often it's important to remind ourselves that the real reason we come out to fight is to have fun. When you are struck with a questionable blow, ask yourself what's more important, winning the fight or maintaining your honor. This is what differentiates what we do from a more mundane sport where the goal is to win at any cost. Our combat is based in honor and it is up to each person participating to ensure that that honor remains. Besides, it makes life easier on all of the marshals as well. Sometimes a bit of ego is lost, but the honor to be gained and maintained is immeasurable.

Enjoy these warm months of spring and, as always, be safe.

Duke Brothgar

From the Kingdom Chamberlain

Greetings Outlanders!

During the last month the Kingdom regalia has increased dramatically with the addition of a new Kingdom Pavilion and a new list field. Master Louis-Philippe and Maestra Francesca along with other assistants have completed the canopy of the Green and Gold Kingdom Pavilion that had it's first set up and use at Estrella War. His Majesty Ceasan, Baron Maelgwn and Count Kynan crafted the ropes and poles and fittings necessary for this giant project. The tent went up easily and smoothly and looked wonderful with it's white stags leaping and bright green and gold shining for all the known world to see. We weathered our first rain storm under it on Wednesday and were all dry and well protected. Thank you to Louis-Philippe and Francesca and all of the helpers for all of their hard work, the Kingdom has been enhanced by your generosity.

We also were gifted by a wonderful new list field at Estrella War. The list field was the product of Sir Jochen and Sir Roger's efforts of wood crafting and metal working. The wonderful pennants in green and gold and their sturdy construction were the work of Baroness Claudia and The Honorable Lady Leah. Huzzah to these fine gentles quality craftsmanship, generosity and perseverance under tight time schedules. Thank you for your addition to the Kingdom's permanent regalia.

I would like to thank the generosity of all Outlanders who have contributed financially to the war efforts in order that these and other projects could be completed for the greater glory of the Outlands.

I am still in need of further repairs and additions to the regalia of the Outlands mostly in the areas of wood working. In particular: pole makers to make the now 'older' kingdom shades functional once again, throne makers to ease the burden of the increasing weariness of our one set of current functional thrones, and box makers to store the medallions and feast gear of the Crown. I have specific dimensions and information on these needs for the Kingdom Regalia, please contact me if you are interested in donating your time so that the items of state can be better taken care of and presented.

In Service,

Duchess Madigan

From the Kingdom White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings.

Here are results from the Letter of Acceptances & Returns from the Laurel Queen of Arms, dated January 21, 2001, which was received by this office on February 8, 2001. It describes decisions made at the October 2000 Laurel & Pelican meetings. Comments are from the Laurel & Pelican Sovereigns of Arms. Typos are mine.

The following items were registered; congratulations.

A{i'}binn Shl{e'}ibe Glass. Name and device. Per chevron purpure and argent, two lioins combattant Or and a sheaf of arrows inverted purpure, in chief a trefoil knot argent.

Submitted as Aibinn na Sl{e'}be Glass, the article was not used in this kind of byname construction. Also, Sl{e'}ibe in this position should be lenited. We have made both these changes, as well as added teh fada in the given name to match the submitted documentation. The submitter requested an authentic Irish name, so we might have gone a little further. We found no evidencethat Glass 'blue' was used in Gaelic place names, so we would have dropped that word, changing the meaning from 'A{i'}binn of Blue Mountain' to 'A{i'}binn of the Mountain'. However, she also indicated she cared most about the meaning, and we decided to honor this wish, even though it meant registering the name in a form that is not quite authentic.

Please ask the submitter to draw the point of the per chevron line higher on the field.

Christian Amaury de Launey. Device. Or, a pile between two roses sable barbed vert and seeded gules.

Gwyneth Penryn. Name.

Mardanah al-Hindiyyah. Name and device. Argent, two peacocks close respectant azure, on a chief triangular purpure a crescent argent.

Maredudd Angharad ferch Gwenhyfar. Alternate name Eirene Tzimiskina Kontostephanina (See RETURNS for badge).

Submitted on the LoI as Eirene Tzimiskina Knotostephanina, we have corrected the typo in the second byname and changed it to the originally submitted form.

Nesta Coed. Device. Or, a sprig of mistletoe inverted vert fructed argent, on a chief vert a sewing needle fesswise reversed argent threaded Or.

Pone Rodrigo de Loronha. Name change from holding name Edwin of Gleann Med{o'}nach.

Wulfgar Neumann. Name.

The following items were returned for further work:

Ian Lindsay MacRae. Device. Argent, a wyvern sable maintaining a sheaf of arrows inverted and a bow, a bordure gules.

Conflict with Reinhardt von Berchtesgaden, Or, a wyvern erect sable within a bordure gules. The maintained charges do not generate difference, therefore there is only a single CD for the field.

Maredudd Angharad ferch Gwenhyfar. Badge for Eirene Tzimiskina Kontostephanina. Per pale Or and argent, a winged lion rampant guardant sable.

This badge was submitted on a device form instead of a badge form. Badges must be submitted on the badge form, although the submitter is free to display it on any shape she desires.

Timothy O'Brien. Badge. Per fess azure and vert, an ermine spot argent.

Conflict with Jade of Starfall, Vert, an ermine tail, spotted of three comapss stars argent. While the compass stars are visible, we feel that the charge in Jade's bage is still a variant of an ermine spot and therefore not significantly different from an ermine spot.

Regional Consulting Heralds

I am hereby requesting applications, by email or via post, for three heraldic positions (they have no titles, as of yet) which will be deputies to the White Stag Principal Herald. These will be the Northern Outlands Regional Consulting Herald, Central Outlands Regional Consulting Herald, and Southern Outlands Regional Consulting Herald.

As you may know, not long ago the Board of Directors decreed that the herald's office was no longer required for branches below the size of a barony. As a result, many of the Outlands' shires no longer have heralds available to them for consultation. Some former heralds have attempted to assist new clients with name and device consultations, for which I am deeply grateful, but I believe that formal positions need to be instituted to fulfill this need.

The duties of each position will be identical, but in different areas of the kingdom. I am asking for heralds with a strong understanding of submissions heraldry— that is, name research and armorial design. The jobs of these heralds will be to assist clients in their regional areas with the research and creation of suitable and unique SCA names and armory, with a special focus on branches which lack a local herald. It will help greatly if you have your own research materials, although this is not a requirement. You should be willing to travel, especially when one of the smaller branches in your area holds an event, and to work on heraldic consultations with clients at those events. Occasional weekday travel for local consultation meetings in these branches is strongly encouraged. You will also serve as an expert resource for local heralds in your area when they have questions or require advice on name research and armorial design. These Regional Consulting Heralds will report directly to White Stag, with copy to the Rampart Herald, who will continue to oversee the submissions process and to accept submissions paperwork.

The northern region will include the Wyoming shires (Northwolde, Plattefordham, Windkeep, Duthaich Beinne Aird), Hinterland, and the Colorado branches, excluding Rio de las Animas Perdidas. I realize that this is a very large region. However, there is a very strong heraldic presence in the Aarquelle-Dragonsspine-Caerthe area, and your focus will especially be on the shires further north. A resident of Unser Hafen, Bofharrach, or Windkeep would, in my opinion, be in perfect geographical position to minister to this region, although such residency is not a requirement.

The central region will include Rio de las Animas Perdidas, Fontaine dans Sable, Maedscir, Drygestan, al-Barran, Blaiddwynn, Scorpions Hollow and Saint Golias.

The southern region will include the rest of the "deep south."

I have no objection to one of these regional consulting heralds simultaneously holding office as a branch herald (baronial, shire, canton, college), or a deputy to a branch herald.

This is the final fruition of a plan which King Martino proposed to me more than a year ago, and I believe it a necessary step for best serving our clients, the populace of the Outlands, with their consultation needs. I look forward to letters of intent for these offices. These, again, can be sent by email or via post, and should summarize your qualifications for the office. I will accept letters until the end of April, and will then make a decision.

Thank you all for your consideration.

On Armorial Displays

Questions have been brought to me about what heraldry an individual person or a branch/group should display at an event— in one's camp at war, for example. Additionally, there are some things which should only be flown or displayed under certain circumstances— specifically, the arms of landed nobility.

The arms of the King of the Outlands are the same as the arms of the kingdom: Vert, a stag argent, attired and unguled, salient from between the boughs of a laurel wreath, in chief a Saxon crown, all within a bordure embattled Or. The arms of the king (and kingdom) should only be displayed when the King of the Outlands is present (at the event; His Majesty doesn't have to actually be in the room). The king will sometimes bear the kingdom arms upon His Majesty's person, which His Majesty is, of course, entitled to do. The White Stag Principal Herald, as the King's Herald, may also wear the king's arms when acting on behalf of and in service to the Crown.

The arms of the Queen of the Outlands are: Vert, a hind salient, unguled and in chief a Saxon crown, all within a wreath of roses, lying as on a bordure Or. As with the king's arms, the arms of the queen should only be displayed when Her Majesty is present. Her Majesty may, of course, bear Her Majesty's arms upon Her Majesty's person. The Blue Iris Herald, as the Queen's Herald, may also wear the queen's arms when acting on behalf of and in service to the Crown.

The arms of the crown prince (Vert, a stag salient argent, attired, unguled and gorged with a Saxon crown, all within a bordure embattled Or, overall a label argent) and of the crown princess (Vert, a hind salient argent, unguled and gorged with a Saxon crown Or, between three doves rising, wings elevated and addorsed argent, beaked and membered, within an orle embattled on the inner edge Or) should, likewise, only be flown when His or Her Highness is present, or upon Their Highnesses' persons. Although there is no such official position, it would be appropriate for a herald acting on behalf of and in service to the crown prince or princess to wear the princely arms.

Similarly to the arms of the king, the arms of the baron (and/or baroness) are the same as the arms of the barony. In Caerthe, for example, the arms of the baron are: Or, a laurel wreath vert, a chief embattled sable. These should only be flown when the baron is present, upon the baron's person, or upon a herald acting in an official capacity. One should not, for example, fly the baronial arms at encampment unless the baron is present (again, one assumes that "on-site" counts as "present").

What is it appropriate for an individual person to display? The best things are your personal armory, your own device and any badges you may have registered. The display of your own arms declares, "Look, I'm here." It is also appropriate for you to display (upon your person, or on a banner/flag/etc.) the registered badges of any orders to which you belong— the Crown grants you that right when you are admitted to the order.

It is also appropriate for you to display the Outlands ensign (Vert, a stag salient argent, attired and unguled, within a bordure embattled Or) or the Outlands war ensign (Pily bendy vert and Or, a stag's attire bendwise sinister gules), at any time. Kingdom law specifically allows for Outlandish citizens to display the ensign at any SCA event (VII.A) If you reside in one of the Outlands' baronies, you can display your baronial ensign, especially at a baronial encampment. In contrast to baronies, the arms of shires, cantons & colleges may be freely displayed by citizens of those branches.

To sum up, the royal and baronial arms are reserved for the actual king, queen, prince, princess, baron and/or baroness; but you should feel free to display your own arms, or the armory of the kingdom, barony, or other branch specifically registered for such a purpose, display by the populace.

Greetings!

Estrella has come and gone but the good new is, there's always next year! I want to thank all the wonderful Outlanders who took the time to send their wonderful A&S work to Estrella. The competition was tough this year, but at least it was OUR side that got 2 of the 3 war points. Next year the possible categories will be: Hand Tools, Alchemy, Casting, Sweets and Candies, and Leather accessories. There will be more information as we progress through the year.

Looking to Queens Prize. Queens Prize is NOT a competition. It's a friendly environment for you to show and tell the wonderful things you do. In order to participate we ask that you have a sponsor who is either a Mistress or Master of the Laurel, a member of the Order of the Rose or a member of the Flower of the Outlands. If you do not know of anyone who can sponsor you, please contact Countess AnneAliz (Darlene Mayette, 1209 Tijeras NE Apt 1, Albuquerque, NM 87106, (505) 243-7568, dgr0dm@dgrlinux04.unm.edu). We look forward to seeing any new faces and of course the familiar ones as well.

Our groups are what WE make of them by our participation. Here's a true A&S story. A young man entered a bracelet he made in a Baronial A&S competition. He did not have any documentation but nobody had told him he needed documentation. When he was judged, he received low scores due to no documentation despite the fact that he had done some really wonderful work on the bracelet. He was very upset and since at that time I was the MOAS that was running the competition, he came storming to me yelling he was never going to enter another A&S competition ever again. I looked at him and said very sadly, "Then you deprive all of us of your wonderful work". I helped him understand what documentation was and he promised me he would enter one more competition just to see if it made a difference. Well, he went on and today we call him Master Vortigern and every year I look forward to visiting him at Estrella as the Crafty Celt, and all the wonderful jewelry he makes and sells. This could happen to you, you never know.

We need someone to host the A&S competition in the Fall. Please follow the Kingdom rules for bidding on a Kingdom Event. It will be held up North this year and I would like some classes during the competition.

Yours in service,

ThLady Jorunn nic Lochlainn

From the Kingdom Exchequer

Greetings from the Kingdom Exchequer,

Thank you for your patience during the transition between myself and THL Bjorn. The Kingdom's finances and paperwork are in good shape.

The generosity of the populace never ceases to amaze me. Thanks to numerous fundraisers, the Kingdom was able to afford a new piece of regalia, the grand green tent you saw at Estrella. The people who deserve the credit are TRM Casean and Vanna, Maestra Francesca, Master Louis-Philippe, Duchess Madigan, Baron Maelgwyn and Master Adam. The remaining money from the fundraisers will go into a War Fund. This money will be set aside to make sure war expenses (Estrella, Lilys, Pennsic, Gulf Wars, etc.) are taken care of. This could include walls for the new tent, table and chair rentals, lanterns, archery targets and grounds maintenance fees among other items. It does not include travel money for the Crown.

In 1999 and 2000, the 2000 Estrella War basically cost us $500.00 for grounds maintenance, $269.61 for tent rentals, $137.00 for Rapier competition related items, and approx. $424.00 for Kingdom Travel (including Treaty Negotiations). The Kingdom of Atenveldt War Account paid $3000 to the Outlands General Fund and $2634.70 to be split among the Baronies, Shires, Cantons and Colleges who performed volunteer work at the event. So, overall, I would say the Kingdom did well financially by participating in Estrella War that year.

The amount we receive from Estrella War will vary each year depending on the number of people attending and the number of volunteer hours worked. I will keep you posted on how we did for Estrella 2001.

I NEED SEVERAL NEW DEPUTIES! Contact me if you are interested.

1 & 2) I would like two regional deputies to assist groups with their reports, make sure event wrap-up reports are done and to do the mandatory reviews of books. It would be helpful if these people have an interest in taking over the Kingdom Exchequer's job at some point in the future.

3) I need a deputy to perform a particular Chamberlain's duty. This duty is to take the new Kingdom tent to events and set it up or make sure it arrives and is set up. The primary events where the tent will be needed are Crown Tournaments, Coronations and Estrella War. It may possibly need to go to Lilys/Gulf Wars and other events within the Outlands, as the Crown requires it.

FYI, the Chamberlain's office is a deputy position to the Kingdom Exchequer. Duchess Madigan or her successor, Countess Eleanor will retain the Royal Chamberlain's duties. However, we feel it requires an additional person to be in charge of the new tent.

Thank you to everyone who completed his or her Doomsday report on time. By the time this notice appears in the OH I should (keep your fingers crossed) have the Kingdom Doomsday report done and on its way to Mistress Tetchubah.

In Service,

Duchess Zinoviia Mikulina'doch Korabelnikova zhena (but you can call me Mina!)

From the Kingdom Archer General

Greetings Archers of the Outlands,

We are victorious! The Outlands, with their allies, won all three target archery war points. We fielded 31 archers on Friday and 45 archers on Saturday. For those who would like to have a detailed breakdown of the scores and have web access, go to http://www.geocities.com/Colosseum/Bench/6931/estrellaxvii.html. THL Phelan of Penguinroost has done a masterful job of compiling all the numbers and putting them into a meaningful format.

I would like to thank Lord Braden von Sobernheim from Artemesia, THL Phelan of Penguinroost from Caid and Master Leif the Wanderer from Atenveldt for their cooperation and enthusiasm. They were my counterparts and comrads in creating the wide variety of shoots available to you this year. I would also like to add special thanks to Mistress Brenna, who did all the typing and compiling of information contained in the archery portion of the treaty (this on top of being one of the main site autocrats), and Lady Liaden of Seahaven, who read all the scores off the score sheets so they could be entered into the computer by THL Phelan.

Behind the scenes thanks go to my own dear lord Eric Morrison, Angus Montgomery the Forrester, Cecelia Corr Mhaire and Larke the Fletcher for help making targets. At the war, many of you assisted in set-up/take-down of the range, marshalling and working the list table. I will name as many of you as I can: Erik Morrison, Larke the Fletcher, Angus Montgomery the Forrester, Leofsige O Caoimh, John the Grizzly, Ian Lindsay MacRae, Duncan Alasdair MacRae, Damian d'Antioche, Oengus of Greymist, Rognvald Longarm and his Lovely Lady(I humbly apologize for forgetting your name yet again) and Yule. If I have missed anyone, please let me know and I will correct it next month. All of your work was greatly appreciated. And thank you to all the archers who made their presence known on the range. Every one of you helped the kingdom with your efforts.

The Outlands sponsored two prize shoots on Sunday morning. The Golden Pheon Wand shoot was won by Lord Angus Montgomery the Forrester who won a custom made longbow from www.woodbows.com (prize donated by Baron Caomh Beathan Crubach) and a dozen custom self-knocked arrows (donated by Lord Larke the Fletcher. Second prize went to THL Phelan of Penguinroost from Caid and I did not get the name of the gentle who won third prize. My thanks to Lord Eric Morrison and Lord Angus Montgomery the Forrester for their work on creating the quiver and armguard given for second and third prize. The Caerthan Prize shoot was won by Lord Larke the Fletcher and the prize of a brass arrow was made and donated by Lord Naxos.

Congratulations to Lady Valorie on receiving her Golden Pheon. She has been doing great things as the Archery Captain of the Barony of Dragonsspine. My lord, Eric Morrison and I, were surprised with the gift of our Sharparrows at an ambush court in our encampment Sunday afternoon at the war.

May your Arrows fly true.

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Salutations Populace of the Outlands,

I have news from the front lines, or the head lines (for the chroniclers.)

All newsletters must send a complementary copy of their work to the Society Archivist. The reason for this is that the SCA Archives are the main archives for the organization as a whole. Groups newsletters won't be lost in a transfer of office (as often happens) and the newsletters will form a permanent part of the groups' role in the history of the SCA.

For our Kingdom well. . .the Outlandish Herald is already being mailed monthly. Baronial Newsletters will send courtesy copies to her - hard copy, every month. All other groups (Shires, Cantons, Colleges etc.) are strongly encouraged to send her courtesy copies of the newsletter in either hard copy format or electronically. Other than the Kingdom newsletters, these newsletters can be mailed in bundles no less frequently than quarterly.

If any group has issues with the cost of printing an extra complementary copy or the cost of mailing copies to the SCA Archives. I will help any group brainstorm with fund-raising activities.

For a reminder, complementary copies of groups newsletters are asked to be sent to; the Kingdom Seneschal, the Kingdom Calendar, SCA Archivist,Their Royal Majesties, and to me. Here are their addresses:

From the Society Seneschal:

Seeking Deputy Society Seneschal – Children's Officer Coordinator

Julleran de Mestre has served as Children's Officer Coordinator for the Society Seneschal's office for four years, and has stepped down. While she will be difficult to replace, we must try. Therefore, applications are being accepted immediately and a choice will be made by the July Board meeting.

The Children's Officer Coordinator acts as a conduit for information among the various kingdom's Children Officers. This is not a supervisory position – the Coordinator just keeps track of who is holding the offices and helps them to exchange ideas and activities. The ideal holder of the position will have some SCA experience, good communication skills, and a desire to make the Society better for our youngest participants. The erm is three years.

Please send a letter of interest and both Society and modern resumes by June 1, 2001 to the incoming Society Seneschal, Daphne of Colchester (Antoinette Adkins-Riepl, 11601 Carlene Drive, Gulfport MS 39503; mdaphne@aol.com).

From the Society Seneschal

As it is currently written, the Society's Waiver Policy (G&PD 19) is very confusing, as well as difficult and expensive to administer. It is, however, a significant protection from suit, and must not be discontinued. The current requirement is that all waivers be shipped to the Corporate Office on a monthly basis and be stored there. However, it does not specify who is responsible for the shipment. It has also been difficult for the Corporate Office to deal with the waivers, since there is no uniformity in the way they are shipped.

The Board is considering a change to section 1 of the waiver policy – this would allow non-US branches to use variant waivers. This change has been sent out for comment.

We also need to consider changes to the rest of the policy. The main issues under discussion are sections 5 and 6 of the current G&PD — collection of the waivers and storage of the waivers. These are discussed below. The only other change contemplated is an addition to section 2, which would explicitly allow roster waivers to be two-sided. Please feel free to comment on that issue if you have any feelings about it.

As to collection and storage, the G&PD currently reads:

> Section 5: All original executed waivers shall be sent to the Member Services Office by each branch on a monthly basis. Waivers should be separated by function and each grouping clearly labeled with the following information: name of the branch, name of the function, date of the function. Copies of waivers need not be kept at the local or Kingdom level.
> Section 6: The Member Services Office shall maintain the waivers as follows:
> Minor Waivers: 20 years; Adult Waivers: 7 years

This puts the responsibility for collection of the waivers on the branches, but does not give any guidance as to how this can be done. It also leaves the office with no organized method of receiving waivers. This is not working very well, on any level. There are several possibilities, but they all start the same way:

> (New Section 5): Each Kingdom will appoint a single responsible officer (Waiver Secretary) to ensure that all required waivers, rosters and sign-in sheets are collected and safely stored within a reasonable time after each event. It is recommended that the responsible officer not be the Kingdom Seneschal. Each kingdom appointee will ensure that waivers for each event can be located and provided to the appropriate officials in the event of a legal situation that requires proof of informed consent, etc.

Collecting waivers at a kingdom rather than a corporate level makes much better sense, since a kingdom appointee will have a better sense of which events have been scheduled and be better able to contact an autocrat to obtain any missing packets.

As for the storage of the waivers, this could be done at the corporate level:

> (New Section 6, proposal 1): All original executed waivers, rosters and sign-in sheets shall be sent to the Corporate Office by the Waiver Secretaries on a monthly basis. Waivers should be separated by function and each grouping clearly labeled with the following information: name of the branch, name of the function, date of the function. Copies of waivers need not be kept at the local or Kingdom level. The Corporate Office shall maintain the adult waivers for 7 years and the minor waivers for 20 years.

...or at the Kingdom level:

> (New Section 6, proposal 2): All original executed waivers, rosters and sign-in sheets shall be stored by each Kingdom in a manner such that a needed waiver can be easily retrieved.

Waivers should be separated by function and each grouping clearly labeled with the following information: name of the branch, name of the function, date of the function. The Kingdoms shall maintain the adult waivers for 7 years and the minor waivers for 20 years.

...or a combination of the two:

(New Section 6, proposal 3): All original executed waivers, rosters and sign-in sheets shall be stored by each Kingdom in a manner such that a needed waiver can be easily retrieved for one year. At the end of each year, the Waiver Secretaries will box and label the waivers and ship them to the Corporate Office for long-term storage. Waivers should be separated by function and each grouping clearly labeled with the following information: name of the branch, name of the function, date of the function. The Corporate Office shall maintain the adult waivers for 7 years and the minor waivers for 20 years.

...or some possibility we have not thought of yet.

If you have any comments on any of these proposals, or any ideas on other ways we can make the waiver system work, please send your comments to the Corporate Office (Waiver Policy, SCA Inc., Box 360789, Milpitas CA 95036) or to comments@sca.org by July 1, 2001. (By the way, electronic storage will not work at the present time – we have neither the equipment or the manpower we would need.)

Thank you for your consideration of these matters.

Event Announcement Information

Listed below you will find the requirements that have been set forth for Outlands Event Announcements. Please note that those items listed as 'Mandatory' must be present in the appropriate event announcement, or I will be unable to print the announcement.

Mandatory in ALL event announcements:

- Name of the Event
- Sponsoring Group
- Event Date(s)
- Mundane name of site and address of site, including ZIP code
- Contact Information for the Autocrat
- Contact Information for Reservations (if not Autocrat, and they are being taken)
- Contact Information for Head Cook (If serving food)
- Contact Information for additional organizers (Crash, fighting, etc.)
- If reservations are being taken:
  - Deadline for acceptance
  - All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)
  - How to make checks payable

Mandatory in FINAL event announcement (Month of):

- All above information
- Site Open and Close times
- Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- Directions to site (include distances, street names, etc.)
  - Do NOT assume signs will always be visible
- All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)

Optional, but highly recommended:

- A map to the site
- Schedule of events
- Feast menu (if feast is provided)
- Other pertinent site information (pet restrictions, water availability, etc.)

'Contact Information' for autocrats as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available. Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication. The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article.
